Crisis Lease Program Support

During this national pandemic, we understand that your business continues to have operating expenses and current office technology leases are still coming to an end. You can upgrade your office equipment with Dove, today (copiers, printers, wide format, computers, etc.), and we will make your first 6 payments (thus relieving you of that lease expense, for the next 6 months). This is one less expense that your company will not have to worry about, during this crisis.

Lease your office technology from Dove now and we will make your first 6 Payments!

Lease for 60 months and only make 54 payments

Lease for 48 months and only make 42 payments

Lease for 36 months and only make 30 payments

First payment not due until October 2020
if leased between March 24 – April 24th
